"Beautiful views", "beautiful food" and "beautiful people" converge at this Peninsula New American inside the Rosewood Hotel that's a "hot spot with a young vibe" and "upscale all the way" including the "classy setting", "terrific" food and "outstanding" service; the "break-the-bank prices" prompt some to say it could be in "Paris, London or Manhattan, not Menlo Park", but on the plus side, the "outside patio is terrific in the summer."
